

LAKE IS MISSING

Former Newark Man. is Short
About $3000

HE HELD A FINE POSITION

But Evidently Got Swamped in Effort to Swing a Big Business Deal.

Theodore F. Lake, who formerly lived in Newark and who a few years ago taught school in this county, afterwards becoming a dramatic reader and later an insurance agent of prominence, having not long ago been appointed state agent in Michigan for a large company with a large salary, is missing from home and the officials say that his accounts show a shortage of $2,000 to $3,000. It is believed that he was swamped in an effort to swing a big business deal. The following telegram to the Advocate from Detroit, Mich., gives the facts in the case:

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 15.—Assistant General Manager A. B. Howe and Auditor W. H. Jacobs today found some startling facts about the transactions of Theodore F. Lake, the former Newark man, whose shortage is between $2,000 and $3,000. It developed today that Lake deposited the company's moneys with his own at the bank to get larger credit for himself. Lake wrote insurance for business and professional men, taking their notes as security for fees and payments. The company today claims that Lake gave an attorney $3,564 worth of notes on October 28 to be sold for him for $2,000 or Nov. 15. They say he sold an interest in a local paper bought for $250 for $1,000, taking a note in payment. The only word received from Lake since December 3 is a note received December 6th by Cashier A. L. Williams. The note was from Grand Rapids and asked that mail be sent to Escanaba.

Lake lived high. He insured a liveryman for twenty years and agreed to take his payment in livery service. Lake's account reached $53 worth of service in six weeks. It is said that Lake wore a different suit daily. He got suits on credit from every high-class tailor who would consent to treat him. The day he left, one tailor delivered two suits value $125 on credit. A few days before Lake bought $200 worth of clothing on credit. He bought a fur-lined overcoat and gave an alleged worthless check for it.

Further Details About Lake.
Detroit, Mich., Dec. 15.—Theodore F. Lake, a former Newark man, who a few years ago was a well known school teacher in Licking county, O., but recently manager for the State of Michigan of the Security Mutual Life Insurance company, is missing and $3,000 short, according to Assistant General Manager A. B. Howe, of the company, who is now in the city.

Efforts of the company to locate the whereabouts of either Lake or his family have failed.
Lake is said to have "worked" Detroit physicians by promises to appoint them special medical examiners for the company, and then getting large insurance premiums from them. A chattel mortgage for $262.50 on household and office furniture has been filed against Theodore F. Lake, and his wife, Julia G. Lake, by A. E. Siever.

"It is difficult for me to say at present just how much this man Lake has taken. We are making an examination of his books, and there is reason to believe that while his deficit may not reach $2,000, it may reach $3,000."

This was the statement made by A. B. Howe, assistant general manager of the Security Mutual Life Insurance company of Birmingham, N. Y., from which, as Michigan manager, Theodore F. Lake is alleged to have appropriated funds.

"Lake's present whereabouts are unknown to officers of the company," continued Mr. Howe. "We have done all in our power to locate him, but our efforts have failed."

"We have communicated with authorities at Mansfield, O., where he and his family were thought to have gone when they left Detroit December 3. But they have not succeeded in getting any trace of him. Neither have they succeeded in getting any trace of his family. Looks queer, doesn't it?"

"We are at present engaged in examining Lake's books. They show many irregularities, to say the least. Two days will be consumed before we know the extent of his peculations."

"You may state for me, as an official of the company, that every man who has applied for a policy through Lake and not received just treatment will receive just and honorable treatment from my company. No man will lose anything.

"A successor to Lake will be appointed within a few days. The successor will be a man whose honor and integrity are beyond question."

"Lake came to us from the New York Life Insurance company. He was recommended as honest in every respect. It was in June of this year that he entered our employ. Since that time he has written over $700,000 in insurance for us but we have received from him—well, the investigation will show what he has turned in to us."

It has developed that Lake tried to work a number of the physicians of the city on the strength of promises that they would be appointed examiners for the company. He succeeded, in some cases in landing them for policies of $10,000 and up. The money he collected from them has yet to be accounted for to the company.

Of the several with whom he was not successful, Dr. W. R. Chittick, 22 Edmund place, made the following statement to the Detroit Journal:

"He tried to work me by promising that I would be made examiner for the company. I mistrusted something and investigated in time to save my money."

At least two other doctors were not so fortunate.
These physicians were promised that they would have fully 15 examinations a month. Of course, like all other old line companies, the Security Mutual has its regular examiners already appointed.

One east side physician and a former public official, tells this story:

"I was promised by Mr. Lake to the effect that I would be appointed one of the medical examiners of the company. I was to receive about 15 examinations a month."

He has been given no examinations. He took about $10,000 insurance, paying over $200 in cash.

It is claimed that the company is fully protected by a bond against all losses resulting from Lake's methods.

One of Theodore F. Lake's characteristics was that he knew how to put his "best foot forward." In handling and spreading save he was a wonder.

Most persons, after one interview, would say he was a remarkably brilliant man. He is about 32 years of age, good looking, tall, nervous and quick in his actions.

That he had much executive ability was shown by the fact that according to authorities in the insurance business, he accomplished in a shorter time more in the way of organization and getting business than had ever been done in the state.

About 12 years ago Lake was a reader and lecturer. His field was the southwest and the east. The Brooklyn Eagle said at that time that he had made a great hit through the country and had captured the Brooklyn literary set. He made a specialty of Shakespearean readings, and entertainments were usually conducted under the direction of prominent churches.

In a Detroit church he gave a lecture on total abstinence.

He told a Detroit acquaintance that he was assistant principal of a Brooklyn high school when he was asked to get into the life insurance business.

His pleasing manner, excellent address, and real talent as winner of men's confidence, made him a winner in getting his big policies.

Lake's advertising methods were unique and effective. He had the agents of the other companies in Detroit "going."

He scattered 10,000 cards about the city bearing the legend, "Talk with Lake," and every street car had a similar sign in it. One of his favorite advertisements appearing in a daily publication was, "Lake says: 'Business is booming. We want more men January 1.'"

Recently the president of the company for which Lake was state manager, was expected in the city and Lake advertised:

"The president is coming. Phone Main 3029."

This also appeared in a daily publication and many people wanting to make sure if it was President Roosevelt who was coming, got in communication with Lake, and, of course, found him ready to insure their lives.

On October 3 of this year Lake entertained in an extravagant manner and at his own expense, Michigan agents of his company, Assistant General Manager Howe, Judges Robert E. Frazer, of the circuit court, and Alfred J. Murphy of the recorder's court, and nearly 100 others. The occasion was the quarterly "round-up" of all Michigan agents. Toasts were given in a felicitous manner and Lake made a big hit.

He is a native of Virginia, where he completed the high school course at 16 years of age. He followed the occupation of teaching for several years attending later the Northwestern Normal college and Denison university.

He studied law at the University of Michigan five years ago. While here it is claimed by some of his classmates he had hard sledding. He and his wife conducted a school for stenographers. A fire burned up his typewriters and other paraphernalia. When he first started in at the University it was suspected by the class that he was scheming to be president.

CHILDREN FELL SIXTY FEET

Ice Broken and Children Struggled in the Water—Fifteen Were Not Injured.

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 15.—(Bulletin)—The wire suspension bridge over Elk river, in use since the Civil War, collapsed this morning, and a number of school children were precipitated 60 feet to the ice of the river below.

The ice was broken through and the children struggled frantically in the freezing water. With the aid of ropes and planks all were rescued but two, Mamie Hagenbothen, aged 11, and Ray Humphreys, aged 12.

When Ella Smith, aged 14, was rescued it was found that she had suffered a broken arm and internal injuries. Three teams were drowned. William Holmes and Henry Fiedler, drivers, were badly injured and Ira Woods, a driver, is missing. It is thought his body is under the ice. About 15 children were rescued uninjured, except for shock and exposure. Many of them crawled out on the ice, but a number were rescued from drowning with difficulty.

No more bodies have been recovered up to 1 p. m., but a number of hats were found floating on the water and it is feared that others have been drowned. Ailie Gibbs was fatally hurt in the crash.

BUT FEW CASES

OF IMPEACHMENT TRIALS IN COUNTRY'S HISTORY.

A House Committee of Seven to Draft
the Swayne Charges For the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Impeachment trials in the United States have been very few. The first case ever brought under the constitution was against William Blount, a United States senator from Tennessee, for violation of the neutrality laws of the country. Other trials have been against the following public men: John Pickens, United States district judge, New Hampshire, for imprisoning an attorney for alleged contempt of court, consisting of a review in a newspaper of a decision of the judge; Samuel Chase, associate justice of the United States supreme court, for malfeasance in office; James Peck, United States district judge of Missouri; West W. Humphreys, United States judge for Tennessee, for advocating secession and giving aid and comfort to the rebellion; Andrew Johnson, president of the United States, for high crimes and misdemeanors; William W. Belknap, secretary of war, for malfeasance and accepting bribes.

Further Action In Swayne Case.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Further action on the impeachment proceedings against Judge Charles Swayne of the northern district of Florida was taken in the house by the appointment of a committee of seven to draft the charges for presentation to the senate and by the reception of the report of the committee of five to notify the senate of the impeachment, who announced that they had performed their duty and that the senate had responded that "order shall be taken." The urgent deficiency bill and several other bills of a public nature were passed.

Senate the Trial Court.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The senate, which under the constitution is made the trial court in impeachment cases, received official notice of the determination of the house of representatives to present impeachment charges against Hon. Charles Swayne, federal judge in the northern district of Florida. The matter was brought to the senate's attention by a house committee, and the senate appointed a committee to prepare the details of the proposed trial.

Civic Federation Meets.

New York, Dec. 15.—The National Civic Federation met in executive session today. The most important work is the selection of a president in the place of Senator Hanna. A letter from Mr. Roosevelt giving a word of praise to Mr. Hanna, was read.

Indictments Dismissed.

Minneapolis, Dec. 15.—The indictments for bribery and corruption against ex-Mayor Ames have been dismissed.

SMOOT HEARING

Retribution Oath Administered Without Details Secrets of the Endowment House.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The retribution obligation was quoted this morning by J. W. Lundstrom, a former Mormon, in the Smoot inquiry. He said: "Oh! God, eternal Father, we ask Thee to bless Thy church, holy priesthood, to help us keep Thy covenants and that all that raise a hand against Thy church be accursed forever, and that vengeance be visited upon the nation for the blood of Joseph Smith."

Lundstrom declared his separation from the church arose from discrepancies between the late and early revelations of the prophets.

August Lundstrom of Salt Lake City, a former Mormon, testified that he went through the temples in Salt Lake and Logan. He had heard the endowment obligation taken six times, he said, each ceremony consuming from six to eight hours, according to the size of the crowd. He said oaths of sacrifice and of retribution were administered. The whole proceedings was a series of obligations. First in order, he said, was the law of sacrifice, which bound each person to give his entire means and talents to the upbuilding of the Mormon church. The next obligation was that of retribution, in which each person covenanted and promised to "ask God to avenge the blood of Joseph Smith upon the nation," and to teach "our children and our children's children to do the same to the end of the earth." The next obligation was that of chastity.

Dr. Chadwick Says He Will Return to America—Accused Woman
Talks in Cell.

Cleveland, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was this morning identified as Madame Devere by Mrs. F. M. Kissinger of Columbus, a former employee in the penitentiary at Columbus, and Mrs. Flora Kissinger, her mother-in-law. The women were led to the cell, and Mrs. Chadwick was addressed as: "How do you do, Mrs. Devere?"

Mrs. Chadwick on a cot, flushed and jerked her head. Her eyes left the sight of the women. She became pale and the women were led away. Both the Kissinger women are positive Mrs. Chadwick is the Devere woman. Mrs. Chadwick spent a restless night, but is happy to be in Cleveland.

DR. CHADWICK DECLARED THAT HE WILL RETURN.

Paris, Dec. 15.—Dr. Lenny S. Chadwick is still here. He said today it was still his intention to return to America.

"Do you expect to be included in the charges?" the doctor was asked.
"Most certainly not," he replied.
Dr. Chadwick spoke of his lengthy stay abroad which seemed to indicate that he has been absent much of the time during the business operations of his wife. Dr. Chadwick has decided not to make a formal statement.

SEVEN INDICTMENTS

Now Rest Against the Noted Woman,
Mrs. Cassie Chadwick—
Again In Jail.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 15.—The federal grand jury has returned additional indictments against Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, who now occupies a cell in the county jail here. Bills were also found against President Beckwith and Cashier Spear of the Citizens' bank of Oberlin. The federal indictments against Mrs. Chadwick are five in number: three of them charge her with aiding and abetting officers of a national bank to defraud the institution and two charge her with conspiring against the United States. Of the four indictments against President Beckwith of the Oberlin bank, two charge him with a misapplication of funds of a national bank, one with conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States, and one with certifying checks when no funds were on hand. The indictments against Cashier Spear are the same as those against President Beckwith. Chandler, the United States marshal, presented to the jury the sworn statement of President Beckwith. This is the document which has been called the "confession" of Beckwith. It set forth, in effect, that there were two notes of $500,000 each, both signed in the name of Andrew Carnegie, and that Mrs. Chadwick declared positively both to him and Cashier Spear, that she personally saw Mr. Carnegie sign his name to both notes. It was also set forth in the statement that a New York attorney who claimed to be a representative of Andrew Carnegie had declared to Beckwith in Oberlin that the notes were genuine. The indorsement of the notes by Beckwith and Spear was admitted, but the statement declared neither of them had any idea that they were to be used in the manner in which Mrs. Chadwick handled them. Mr. Beckwith's statement declared that they received from Iri Reynolds information to the effect that "everything was all right" and that a large amount of good securities belonging to Mrs. Chadwick were held by the Wade Park bank. This encouraged him to make loans to Mrs. Chadwick. Mr. Beckwith's statement set forth the fact that Mrs. Chadwick had secured large loans from other bankers and had met them promptly. There was no reason to believe that she would not treat loans made by the Oberlin bank in the same manner.

offer, for while I am in jail I am free from the annoyance of curious people. If I were living at my home or in a hotel under bail, I could not hire men enough to protect me from the affronts of these people. I shall stay with Sheriff Barry at least until the bankruptcy case is settled. I have received a letter from Dr. Chadwick, written in Paris. He assured me of his belief in my innocence. I believe Dr. Chadwick has sailed from Liverpool on a White Star steamer, so that within 10 days, if this report be true, he will be by my side. The statement that he cabled to people in New York for funds is too ridiculous for utterance. He is plentifully supplied with money. You may assure my friends and those who believe in me that I will not disappoint the confidence they repose in me. I will show them and the whole world that I am an honest woman."

Hostile Demonstrations.

Mrs. Chadwick's homecoming was the occasion of hostile demonstrations on the part of the populace. She was greeted with jeers, hoots and hisses by the crowds that gathered in the depot when her train arrived, and howled at her by hundreds gathered in front of the federal building. The last sound that reached her from the outside world, as she passed into the stuffy, ill-smelling office of Sheriff Barry in the county jail, was the hoot of derision from the people massed in front of the doorway. She made no attempt to give bail, and after a brief stop in the office of the clerk of the United States court was taken to jail. She is held in cell 14, in the woman's department of the jail, and her palatial residence on Euclid avenue, of which the furnishings alone are valued at $200,000, is occupied by her maid. Her courage held to the last, but her body failed her, and when she had mounted the three flights of stairs leading to the tier of cells where she is to remain, she collapsed utterly and fell in a dead faint. In a few seconds she revived, and was again a woman of business. Her first request was that her lawyer, Sheldon G. Korrish, be sent for, and she was soon engaged in a conference with him concerning her defense.

There is small chance that Mrs. Chadwick will be able to leave the jail before her trial. There are now seven indictments against her, five additional charges having been laid against her in the federal court. It would require surety to the amount of at least $100,000 to give her freedom, and there is nobody in Cleveland who will furnish that amount for her. She has herself no idea of giving bail, and will remain in jail.

Mrs. Chadwick declined to plead when she reached the federal building, and after a short conference between the officials she was placed in a carriage and hurried to the county jail. Great crowds thronged the streets and hoots and jeers again rent the air. Arriving at the jail, Mrs. Chadwick was compelled to pass through several rooms to the desk of Jailer Eggers to be registered. Sheriff Barry asked Mrs. Chadwick the usual questions, the first being her age, and Mrs. Chadwick replied to the queries in a quiet tone of voice, stating her age to be 38 years, her residence as Cleveland, and the United States as the country of her birth. When placed in her cell Mrs. Chadwick again fainted.

Carnegie's Statement.

New York, Dec. 15.—That Andrew Carnegie is willing to appear against Mrs. Chadwick when his health is sufficiently improved was made clear in a statement given out at Mr. Carnegie's residence by his secretary. "Mr. Carnegie's only reason for not going to Cleveland at this time has already been given," said the secretary. "His health will not admit of his taking the trip save at considerable risk, as his physician has already said he is suffering from lumbago. He has been willing to make a deposition at his home, and later, on his return from Florida, he will lend his assistance and be present to testify at any subsequent proceedings, such as a trial, whenever his testimony is needed."

SECRETARY TAFT RETURNS FROM THE CANAL ZONE.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Secretary Taft, just returned from Panama, praises the work done on the canal. It is probable that Chief Engineer Wallace will recommend the construction of a sea level canal believing this the more economical.

Lawson's Warning.

Boston, Dec. 15.—Thomas L. Lawson issued another warning at noon today as follows: "Don't miss the opportunity to give the frenzied financiers Amalgamated copper. Remember opportunity knocks but once, and those who doubt or hesitate miss the chance of being introduced to the Old Lady. The time to sell Amalgamated is when you have the market, not when the other fellow has it. Don't fall into any 'fakes' about my being short of copper or anything else. If I were short of anything it would be promptly cornered."

The stock traders immediately looked for a flurry on the market as a result of the last move in Lawson's fight on the Standard Oil interests.

Bonds Would Have Been Sold—Sheriff
Couldn't Locate the City Auditor.

There was intense excitement at the City Hall at noon today, the hour set for opening bids for the $300,000 water works bonds, to construct a new plant.

An injunction had been granted and papers placed in the hands of Sheriff Anderson for service Thursday morning on Solicitor Smythe, Auditor Maurath, and members of the finance committee.

Solicitor Smythe was served early Thursday morning, but the Sheriff was unable to find Auditor Maurath and several members of the finance committee, and as proposed purchasers came to the Auditor's office, they were told that bids were being received. Many bidders had already heard of the legal proceedings and went to call at the Auditor's office more in a social than a business way. When informed that bids were being received there was a surriving for envelopes in which to put their bids. Each bid was accompanied by a certified check for $30,000 as an evidence of good faith.

The morning hours were on and still Auditor Maurath had not been served. Bids were being received from representatives of firms, whose headquarters are in Boston, New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, Columbus and other cities, as bidders being present in all.

At last it was one minute of 12 and Auditor Maurath told all interested to adjourn to the Council chamber where the bids would be opened, and the meeting organized by the selection of ites R. Jones, member of the finance committee as chairman, Senator W. E. Miller head of the finance committee being in New York City.

At this moment the clock began to strike 12, and with the first stroke Sheriff Anderson was on the lower steps of the flight leading up to the City Hall corridor Auditor Maurath was at the top of the steps, with the sealed proposals in his hand, going toward the Council chamber. The Sheriff and Auditor caught sight of each other at the same moment. Mr. Anderson was up the steps in a bound but Maurath was also quick and made a dash for the open door of the Auditor's office through which he ran, hotly pursued by the Sheriff. After running through several of the offices Maurath was finally overtaken by the Sheriff and the papers served on him. J. R. Meier, member of the finance committee, was served at the bottom of the steps, just before this exciting episode.

Auditor Maurath then informed the meeting of the court's action, and on motion meeting adjourned, and the bond sale was declared off.

Each bidder was returned his bid and certified check, and they scurried to catch trains for home.

Nan Patterson Trial.

New York, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Young, widow of Caesar Young, was a witness in the criminal branch of the supreme court, where Nan Patterson is on trial before Justice Vernon M. Davis charged with Young's murder. She was on the stand only long enough to identify a letter to which another witness had referred. The letter had been produced by Bernard L. McKean, one of Young's brothers-in-law, who testified that Young had mentioned it in a conversation with Miss Patterson early in May, and that Miss Patterson had said the letter was written by her sister, Mrs. J. Morgan Smith. The letter has not yet been read in evidence. Another of Young's brothers-in-law, William Luce, told of what occurred between Young and Miss Patterson at their meeting in a saloon the night before Young was killed, and John Crowley, a cab driver, repeated his story of having seen Young slap the prisoner's face during a quarrel on the street that same night.

War Against Mosquitoes.

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 15.—Cornell university authorities have started a systematic movement to rid the city of mosquitoes, which are said to have caused last summer's epidemic of malaria. The local health department has received reports from 2,000 persons treated for malaria by physicians and also from many who did not summon medical attendance. The university has offered to appropriate one-third of the money to spread oil upon swamps in low parts of the city. All malaria patients have been asked to contribute $1 each.

HEBRON NEWS

WEDDING OF MR. TAGGART AND MISS GEORGIA DAVIS.

Little Boy Attacked By a Dog—Last Night of the Revival—Personal Items.

Hebron, O., Dec. 15.—A very pretty home wedding occurred Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Davis, on the East Side, when their youngest daughter, Miss Georgia E. Davis and Mr. Arthur Taggart were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Elder Dove, pastor of the Primitive Baptist church. The bride looked lovely in a gown of cream tulle veiling, and carried white carnations and roses. There were about thirty relatives of the contracting parties present, and after extending congratulations all repaired to the dining-room, where a delicious wedding dinner was served. The bride was the recipient of some beautiful presents consisting of cut glass, silver and linen. Mr. and Mrs. Taggart will be at home to their friends at the home of their parents until spring.

Stanley Lamp and brother entertained twenty-two of their young friends very pleasantly at their home on East Main street, Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and a jolly good time had by those present.

Mr. E. M. Legge and wife of West Carlisle, and Mr. and Mrs. John Legge of Newark, visited at the home of Prof. C. V. Debut, Thursday and Friday.

While passing the Interurban Hotel barn on his road home, about 4 o'clock Tuesday, Leslie, the little son of G. V. Turner was attacked by a large bird dog, that came out of the barn. The animal jumped on him and made a grab for his face. Fortunately Leslie threw up his arm and received the dog's teeth in his arm, just below the elbow. Otherwise his face, no doubt, would have been badly lacerated. However, he succeeded in getting away from the dog and came to Dr. G. N. Brown's office where his injuries were immediately attended to. The dog is a stray one, and looks vicious, although he does not seem to be mad.

The relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman White, whose two children were ill with typhoid fever for several weeks at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Larimore, were removed to their own home near Marion, last Sunday, have received word that they arrived safely and both children stood the trip fairly well and hopes are now entertained for a speedy recovery.

A FATAL MISTAKE. Is Often Made by the Wisest of Newark People.

It's a fatal mistake to neglect backache.

Backache is the first symptoms of kidney ail.

Serious complications follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them promptly.

Don't delay until too late.

Until it becomes diabetes—Bright's disease.

Read what a Newark citizen says:

Charles W. Cooper, employed at Geo. Hermann's clothing store, and living at 233 Hoover St., Newark, O., says:

"Backache distressed me continually for a long time. There was a dull aching in the loins and my back was very weak. Besides this I had trouble with the kidney secretions, which were irregular and disturbed my sleep at night. I was usually just as tired in the morning as when I went to bed. Nothing I could get seemed to help any until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Crayton's drug store. I had heard a great deal about the wonderful action of this remedy on the kidneys and bladder, but I was greatly surprised by the quick effect in my case. I improved rapidly under the treatment until the pain in the back ceased and the action of the kidneys became natural. A few boxes made a complete cure."

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which, despite the most beneficent environment of soil-of sunshine-and of atmosphere, seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a cancer eating out its heart. You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out. Newbros Eczema destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Even some of the Republican papers of Pennsylvania are waking up to the fact that the high tariff duties ought to be changed by the incoming congress. When the Republican press of a state like Pennsylvania joins the ranks of tariff reformers surely there must be good reason to complain.

Winter is said to have fully set in at Mukden, and this probably means that there will be no important operations in that quarter until spring. It has been asserted that the Japanese were waiting for the rivers to freeze over, and that they would then push forward. But meanwhile the Russians have so thoroughly fortified their position that it hardly seems probable that their enemies will undertake the task of forcing them at a time when the weather might greatly cripple them. Until Port Arthur falls the Japanese are likely to devote their attention to holding their own below Mukden. After that event, if it happens they will need time to bring up their troops, and spring will probably be close at hand, or actually arrived, before they are ready to try final conclusions with Kuropatkin.

POST SEASON GAMES

Between American and National League Champions Favored at Baseball Meeting.

New York, Dec. 15.—Resolutions favoring a series of post-season games between the champion teams of the National and the American leagues for the championship of the world were adopted here at the annual meeting of the National league, and the National commission was directed to prepare all the rules and regulations for the series and to submit them to the two leagues concerned. While favoring the post-season games, the magnates stuck to the old schedule of 151 games for each club, stipulating, however, that in order to permit of the playing of post-season games, the schedule for the season should not extend beyond Oct. 8.

IN COLORADO

Precinct Thrown Out In Consequence of Frauds at Election By Supreme Court.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 15.—By deciding to throw out the vote of Precinct 7, Ward 8, of this city, in consequence of frauds committed there at the late election, the supreme court established a precedent that may be applied to many other precincts in which it is alleged the court's injunction order was violated, and thereby vitally affect the results of the late election.

Should similar action be taken in other cases to the extent demanded by the resolution, it will result in the election of the entire Republican legislative ticket in this county and give the Republicans control of both branches of the legislature. On the face of the returns the Republicans have a majority in the house and the Democrats a majority in the senate.

A. D. Seward of St. Louisville, was in the city on Thursday.

FINAL FAREWELL

Mme. Adelina Patti's Public Career Begins and Ends in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 15.—Mme. Adelina Patti gave a concert here for the benefit of the Red Cross society under the auspices of the Grand Duchess Maria Pavlovna. The concert was a brilliant success, netting over $37,000. Seats were sold at fabulous prices. Emperor Nicholas, members of the Imperial family and all the wealth and rank of the Russian capital were present. The diplomatic corps were represented by Spencer Eddy, the American charge d'affaires. Mme. Patti received a wonderful ovation and at the conclusion of the concert announced that this was her final farewell to the concert stage, adding that as her first success was achieved in St. Petersburg, it was fitting that she should close her public career here.

RUSSIANS SATISFIED

With Military Situation in Manchuria—Says Japs Have Reached High Tide.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 15.—The general staff apparently is entirely satisfied with the military situation in Manchuria, being satisfied that the Japanese have reached their high tide.

A high official of the war office said: "The Japanese have missed the psychological moment. They should now be at Harbin, with Vladivostok and the east literally cut off, and de facto theirs, instead of wintering where they are. The cold is Russia's ally now, as it was against Napoleon. The Japanese can not endure extreme cold like the Russians. They are not strong enough to attempt to turn Mukden now, and will not be, even if Port Arthur falls, and 50,000 reinforcements are sent to join Field Marshal Oyama. In the meantime Russian troops are piling up behind Mukden. In February, before the Port of Newchwang is ice-free, General Kuropatkin will have close upon half a million men disposed in three armies, amply sufficient to turn Oyama's position at the Shkhe river, and force the Japanese back into Korea and the Liaotung peninsula."

There is no doubt that the government intends to commit itself to very extensive reforms as the result of the liberal agitation when Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky made his advent as minister of the interior. The zemstvoist demands for a direct representative body to make the laws of the nation will not be granted, but some medium in the form of a consultative body, which can voice the wishes of the people direct to the sovereign, now seems the probable outcome. An entirely new law for the liberalization of the press also is apparently certain.

ENTIRE FLEET

Has Been Destroyed—Warship Sevastopol Reported Sunk Jap Boats in Dock.

Tokyo, Dec. 15.—It is reported that the Japanese have successfully torpedoed the Russian battleship Sevastopol. Every part of the city and harbor of Port Arthur is visible from 203-meter hill. The streets of the city are deserted, and but few soldiers are doing patrol duty. Many buildings have been burned and others shattered. The shelters of the harbor present a strange impression with the turkeys, masts and funnels of warships showing just above the water. There is not a vessel afloat in the harbor. The docks and buildings on the water front are torn and burned. The Japanese shells reach every part of the city and harbor.

Some torpedo craft are outside of the harbor. The tremendous price in life paid by the Japanese for the capture of 203-meter hill has been redeemed by the utter destruction of the Russian fleet. The Japanese fleet will now go into dock.

SPARED HIS LIFE

After Receipt of $200—Later Man Gave a Cow to Secure His Release.

Louis, Ky., Dec. 15.—John Babers Wallace was kidnapped just across the river from this place by a party of eight men, composed, it is alleged, of Morgan Curry and two brothers, Lewis and Charles Dillon. Stewart McNeally and two others. Wallace was taken up Tug river 10 miles into West Virginia. He paid his captors $200 to spare his life, and later he gave them a cow to release him. The men refused to accept Wallace's check, but John Y. York, a merchant, accepted it and gave them his own check. Wallace was a saloon keeper and his place was recently destroyed by a mob. During the melee Mrs. Wallace was shot in the leg and Tom Curry in the breast. Wallace caused the arrest of one of the mob.

James D. Corwin of Waverly is in the city today.

Albert C. Heath of Shelby is in the city on business.

An accident occurred at Barnesville Hill on the C. O. division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad on Wednesday afternoon about 2:50 o'clock. Eight empty cars were derailed and blocked the track so that President Murray's special train was delayed over four hours and all traffic was delayed. The wreck train was sent to the scene of the accident and worked until a late hour Wednesday night, clearing up the wreck.

Control of C., H. & D.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 15.—An announcement was made by a person who claims to have figured in the negotiations, that George B. The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton will be run and managed jointly with the Pere Marquette system, which is also under the personal control of Messrs. Zimmerman and Hollins.

THE W. C. T. U.

At the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. held on Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the First Methodist church, the subject for consideration was, "Crusade and Peace."

Mrs. Maxwell was in charge and Rev. J. W. Maxwell and Rev. Mr. Bovey were present and made excellent addresses on the subject.

Mrs. Sisson also gave an excellent address, while Mrs. Stella Anderson read a pamphlet very interesting to all.

"Christmas Thoughts" will be the subject next Tuesday and no doubt will be very interesting. Everybody is invited.

There is no cause these days that needs so much attention as temperance. Boys not out of their teens are seen on our streets almost any time in a state of intoxication. Nothing is more disgusting than to see men staggering from one side of the street to the other. Let all women take a firm stand on the side of right, and help roll the old chariot along.

PATIENT REFUSED TO SUBMIT TO OPERATION TO SAVE HIS LIFE

Doctors Agreed That it Was Necessary But to Their Surprise Mr. Saum Seems Better—A Remarkable Case Should He Recover.

Dr. Seibough of Lancaster, the family physician of Andrew Saum, the man who was struck on the top of the head by a falling plant at Heisey's glass plant, arrived in Newark at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and immediately went into consultation with Drs. Barnes and Downes, the Newark physicians who have charge of the case. Mr. Saum had agreed to submit to an operation, which was deemed necessary to save his life. Dr. Seibough should agree with the opinion of the Newark doctors. This he did in every particular but the patient still refused to have it done, saying he would rather die than submit to it. In consequence the operation had to be abandoned. Saum on Thursday morning appeared brighter, and the attending physicians are astonished at the man's vitality. They are not prepared to say that death is inevitable, but are frank to admit that recovery seems to them impossible. If the man recovers it will be a most remarkable case as he has a depressed fracture of the skull extending from the middle of the skull forward four inches. In consequence they are watching the case with intense interest.

NEWARK COURT NEWS OF THE DAY

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Frank C. Garber Has Commenced An Action Against Mayor White of Hebron.

Frank C. Garber has brought suit against T. Milton White for damages. He says that White is the mayor of Hebron; that White unlawfully arrested and imprisoned him, and unlawfully deprived him of his liberty without due process of law from the 14th to the 16th of November, last. That he demanded that White advise him of what offense he was charged with, which information was refused. That at a pretended hearing, the plaintiff was given no opportunity to employ counsel to defend; that no affidavit was read; that he was fined and adjudged to pay the costs, and was not allowed to give bond. That he was kept in the Licking county jail until November 16, when he was released on a writ of habeas corpus. That he was compelled to undergo the humiliation of being in charge of an officer on a Buckeye Lake car to Newark. For mental anguish, shame, disgrace and lost time, he asks damages in the sum of $516. J. Howard Jones, attorney.

NO NEW TRIAL

Motion in P. B. Evans Case Overruled—Defendant Sentenced Later—Common Pleas Court.

In the case of the State of Ohio v. P. B. Evans, motion for new trial was overruled.

Evans was indicted, tried and convicted of mayhem, the state claiming that in a dispute over a right to use a private right of way, over the land of Stephen Nessley, the public highway having become tenuous, Evans attacked Nessley with a club, permanently disabling him. The defendant will be sentenced later during the present term.

Frank A. Bolton, trustee, v. Elsie White. In this case the court set aside the deed from Robert A. White to Elsie White on the ground that at the time the transfer was made Robert White was insolvent. The property is located in West Newark on Union street. This does not refer to the property owned by Anson B. White in East Newark.

AN ADMINISTRATOR

Will Be Appointed in Few Days For Benjamin Franklin's Estate—Left No Will.

Mr. Cranning Thompson, assistant cashier of the Peoples National bank, a son-in-law of the late Benjamin Franklin, said Thursday that an administrator would be appointed within a few days to take charge of the deceased's estate. It is not definitely decided who the man will be, but he will be a man who has leisure to give to the matter as Mr. Franklin's interests were large and varied not only in this but in other states. It is probable that the administrator will be a man having no connection with the Franklin family.

The general supposition was that Mr. Franklin had left a will and various rumors were afloat concerning certain clauses of the document. A will has been found. Mr. Franklin was one of the wealthy men of Newark.

Mr. Franklin's family consists of the widow, three daughters, Mrs. H. H. Griggs of Cleveland, Mrs. H. P. Scott and Mrs. C. M. Thompson of this city and a grandson, the son of Mr. Thad L. Montgomery of Coshocton.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Virgil Buel Files Suit in Probate Court—She Makes An Unusual Allegation.

Gertrude Buel has filed a petition in the probate court, wherein she asks that she be granted a decree of divorce from her husband, Virgil Buel.

The parties were married on December 24, 1901, and have no children. For cause of action plaintiff charges her husband with failure to provide and with extreme cruelty. On one occasion, during a severe thunderstorm at Hartford, a tree that was standing in the doorway was struck by lightning, when the defendant, according to the plaintiff, said, "You ought to have been standing under that tree and get knocked into a thousand pieces, and then I would be rid of you; you ought to be dead." Plaintiff asks for a divorce and that she be restored to her maiden name of Gertrude Stadgen, S. Leamon, attorney for the plaintiff.

In the case of George P. Webb, as receiver, against Mary F. Lingafelter and Robert C. Lingafelter, the plaintiff has filed a motion in the common pleas court, in which he asks the court to strike from the answer that part which begins with the words, "But they say at the time of said appointment, etc." and continuing to the end of the paragraph, which concludes with the words, "Is indebted to said company." The grounds for the motion are that the allegations are irrelevant and immaterial and not pertinent to this action. Wherefore he prays judgment thereof. Kibler & Kibler, attorneys for plaintiff.

Suit For Damages. Joseph H. Thompson has sued the Newark Natural Gas and Fuel company for $300 in 'Squidie Atcherly's' court, alleging that defendants forcibly entered upon his premises on December 1, and turned off the gas, much to his damage and inconvenience.

Marriage Licenses. William M. Conley, Newark; Myrtle R. Spangler, Newark.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by Hall's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

JUDGE THOMPSON

Says That Favoritism at Penitentiary Is An Inherited Condition—He Will Investigate.

Columbus, O., Dec. 15.—"It is true that under or unlawful favoritism has been shown to United States prisoners at the Ohio penitentiary," said Judge A. C. Thompson of the United States district court, in speaking of the recent rumors to that effect, "it is not Warden Gould's fault, I am sure. The condition, if it exists, is hereditary."

"If the rumors prove to be true it is because Warden Gould found conditions so when he went there and therefore did not know that they were infringements of either rules or law."

Judge Thompson stated further that he had seen the warden since coming to Columbus to hold the December term of court, but that he had had no opportunity of talking over the situation with him. He said that he would investigate and that if it were the purpose of either the warden or the board of managers to show undue favoritism to United States prisoners, he, for one, would make strong objection and would take such steps as were necessary to prevent further breaking of rules.

Columbus, C., Dec. 15.—Judge Thompson is looking after the charge which has been made that unusual privileges are shown to Harry Hoover and Dick Davis, two United States prisoners.

It has been claimed that they are allowed to leave the prison and wander about the city in the evenings; that they sleep in the front office, etc., while the other prisoners are denied anything like such liberties.

Warden Gould in speaking of the matter said substantially that Hoover and Davis were assigned to the front office because they were experienced bookkeepers, and that to put outside men in their places would entail an expense of at least $2000 to the state.

In fact, he said, that in all the offices of the prison prisoners were detailed to do clerical work; he also said that Hoover and Davis had walked around the prison walls for exercise, but always in charge of a guard.

Tammany Says It's a Hoax.

New York, Dec. 15.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, denied that a committee representing Tammany Hall had made a request to the inaugural committee at Washington to be given a position in the inaugural parade for the Tammany organization. "This certainly must be a hoax," said Mr. Murphy. "If any Tammany committee, of which I know nothing, has made the effort to make such a request, it is without my knowledge and would be an investigation."

Sanitation Bill Passed.

Havana, Dec. 15.—The house of representatives passed the bill appropriating $100,000 for the sanitation of the streets of Santiago, Cienfuegos, Cardenas and Matanzas. The work is to be done in accordance with the request of the United States and the recommendations of President Palma, under the direction of the general government.

Hawaiian Japs Warned.

Honolulu, Dec. 15.—The Japanese of Kauai island are drilling preparatory to going home to Japan to participate in the war. Governor Carter has ordered an investigation. Japanese Consul Miki Sait has issued a proclamation urging his countrymen to take special care not to violate the laws of neutrality and to avoid the possibility of embarrassing America.

Main Defenses Unbroken.

Mukden, Dec. 15.—Late dispatches received at headquarters from Fort Arthur by way of Chefoo declare that the situation there is by no means as desperate as it is reported by foreign newspaper dispatches. The line of main defenses is unbroken and there is plenty of ammunition and food.

Succeeds Wirenus.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 15.—Vice Admiral Bezobrazoff has been appointed chief of the marine staff, replacing Vice Admiral Wirenus.

Editor Davis Dead.

Philadelphia, Dec. 15.—L. Clarke Davis, editor-in-chief of the Public Ledger of this city, died at his home here of heart disease, aged 70. Mr. Davis, who has been managing editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer, became identified with the Public Ledger about 12 years ago, and up to the time of his last illness directed the policy of that newspaper. He is survived by a widow, Rebecca Harding Davis, the author; a daughter and two sons, one of the latter being Richard Harding Davis, who is prominent as a war correspondent, novelist and magazine writer.

Destitute Porto Ricans.

San Francisco, Dec. 15.—The Bulletin states that about 500 Porto Ricans, whose contracts for working in the sugar plantations of Hawaii have expired, are in this city in a destitute condition. It is declared that nearly 5,000 more will soon arrive from the islands. They did not find the conditions of labor in Hawaii agreeable, but none is anxious to return to Porto Rico, preferring to remain in this country.

Makes Serious Charges.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 15.—In contest papers filed by Benjamin J. Coleman, Democratic candidate for county judge, charges of bribery, fraud, intimidation and premeditated assassination to carry the election in Teller county are made against the Citizens' Alliance, the Mine Owners' association and the Republican organization.

WASHINGTON SPENCE

Washington Spence died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Roberts, near the Welsh Hills, Sunday. Mr. Spence was born in Dresden and enlisted in 1862 at Dresden under Captain Lemmer. He was a loyal soldier of Company F, 97th O. V. I., and served until the close of the war. Mr. Spence was employed as a brick tapper for years in the brick yards of this city, and had lived in Licking county since 1865. Chapter Twentieth The Mantle of Immortality

AND now we come to a turning point in the career of Santa Claus, and it is my duty to relate the most remarkable circumstance that has happened since the world began or mankind was created.

We have followed the life of Claus from the time he was found a helpless infant by the Wood Nymph Nettle and reared to manhood in the great Forest of Burzee, and we know how he began to make toys for children and how, with the assistance and good will of the immortals, he was able to distribute them to the little ones throughout the world.

For many years he carried on this noble work, for the simple, hardworking life he led gave him perfect health and strength. And doubtless a man can live longer in the beautiful Laughing Valley, where there are no cares and everything is peaceful and merry, than in any other part of the world.

But when many years had rolled away Santa Claus grew old. The long beard of golden brown that once covered his cheeks and chin gradually became gray and finally turned to pure white. His hair was white, too, and there were wrinkles at the corners of his eyes, which showed plainly when he laughed. He had never been a very tall man, and now he became fat and waddled very much like a duck when he walked. But in spite of these things he remained as lively as ever and was just as jolly and gay, and his kind eyes sparkled as brightly as they did that first day when he came to the Laughing Valley.

Yet a time is sure to come when every mortal who has grown old and lived his life is required to leave this world for another, so it is no wonder that, after Santa Claus had driven his reindeer on many and many a Christmas Eve, those staunch friends finally whispered among themselves that they had probably drawn his sledge for the last time.

Then all the Forest of Burzee became sad, and all the Laughing Valley was hushed, for every living thing that had known Claus had used to loved him and to brighten at the sound of his footsteps or the notes of his merry whistle.

No doubt the old man's strength was at last exhausted, for he made no more toys, but lay on his bed as in a dream.

The Nymph Nettle, she who had reared him and been his foster mother, was still youthful and strong and beautiful, and it seemed to her but a short time since this aged, gray bearded man had lain in her arms and smiled on her with his innocent baby lips.

In this is shown the difference between mortals and immortals.

It was fortunate that the great Ak came to the Forest at that time. Nettle sought him with troubled eyes and told him of the fate that threatened their friend Claus.

At once the Master became grave, and he leaned upon his ax and stroked his grizzled beard thoughtfully for many minutes. Then suddenly he stood up straight and poised his powerful head with firm resolve and stretched out his great right arm as if determined on doing some mighty deed, for a thought had come to him so grand in its conception that all the world might well bow before the Master Woodsman and honor his name forever!

It is well known that when the great Ak once undertakes to do a thing he never hesitates an instant. Now he summoned his fleetest messengers and sent them in a flash to many parts of the earth. And when they were gone he turned to the anxious Nettle and comforted her, saying:

"Be of good heart, my child; our friend still lives. And now run to your Queen and tell her that I have summoned a council of all the immortals of the world to meet with me here in Burzee this night. If they obey and harken unto my words, Claus will drive his reindeer for countless ages yet to come."

At midnight there was a wondrous scene in the ancient Forest of Burzee, where for the first time in many centuries the rulers of the immortals who inhabit the earth were gathered together.

There was the Queen of the Water Sprites, whose beautiful form was as clear as crystal, but continually dripped water on the bank of moss where she sat. And beside her was the King of the Sleep Fays, who carried a wand from the end of which a fine dust fell all around, so that no mortal could keep awake long enough to see him, as mortal eyes were sure to close in sleep as soon as the dust filled them. And next to him sat the Gnome King, whose people inhabit all that region under the earth's surface, where they guard the precious metals and the jewel stones that lie buried in rock and ore. At his right hand stood the King of the Sound Imps, who had wings on his feet, for his people are swift to carry all sounds that are made. When they are busy they carry the sounds but short distances, for there are many of them, but sometimes they speed with the sounds to places miles and miles away from where they are made. The King of the Sound Imps had an anxious and careworn face, for most people have no consideration for his Imps, and especially the boys and girls make a great many unnecessary sounds which the Imps are obliged to carry when they might be better employed.

The next in the circle of immortals was the King of the Wind Demons, slender of frame, restless and uneasy at being confined to one place for even an hour. Once in awhile he would leave his place and circle around the globe, and each time he did this the Fairy Queen was obliged to untangle the flowing locks of her golden hair and tuck them back of her pink ears. But she did not complain, for it was not often that the King of the Wind Demons came into the heart of the Forest. After the Fairy Queen, whose home you know was in old Burzee, came the King of the Light Elves, with his two Princes, Flash and Twilight, at his back. He never went anywhere without his Princes, for they were so mischievous that he dared not let them wander alone.

Prince Flash bore a lightning bolt in his right hand and a horn of gunpowder in his left, and his bright eyes roved constantly around as if he longed to use his blinding flashes. Prince Twilight held a great snuffer in one hand and a big black cloak in the other, and it is well known that unless Twilight is carefully watched the snuffers or the cloak will throw everything into darkness, and Darkness is the greatest enemy the King of the Light Elves has.

In addition to the immortals I have named were the King of the Knaves, who had come from his home in the jungles of India, and the King of the Ryls, who lived among the gay flowers and luscious fruits of Valencia. Sweet Queen Zurline of the Wood Nymphs completed the circle of immortals.

But in the center of the circle sat three others who possessed powers so great that all the Kings and Queens showed them reverence.

These were Ak, the Master Woodsman of the World, who rules the forests and the orchards and the groves; and Kera, the Master Husbandman of the World, who rules the grain fields and the meadows and the gardens; and Bo, the Master Mariner of the World, who rules the seas and all the craft that float thereon. And all other immortals are more or less subject to these three.

When all had assembled the Master Woodsman of the World stood up to address them, since he himself had summoned them to the council.

Very clearly he told them the story of Claus, beginning at the time when as a babe he had been adopted a child of the Forest and telling of his noble and generous nature and his lifelong labors to make children happy.

"And now," said Ak, "when he has won the love of all the world, the Spirit of Death is hovering over him. Of all men who have inhabited the earth none other so well deserves immortality, for such a life cannot be spared so long as there are children of mankind to miss him and to grieve over his loss. We immortals are the servants of the world, and to serve the world we were permitted in the Beginning to exist. But what one of us is more worthy of immortality than this man Claus, who so sweetly ministers to the little children?"

He paused and glanced around the circle to find every immortal listening to him eagerly and nodding approval. Finally the King of the Wind Demons, who had been whistling softly to himself, cried out:

"What is your desire, O Ak?"

"To bestow upon Claus the Mantle of Immortality," said Ak boldly.

That this demand was wholly unexpected was proved by the immortals springing to their feet and looking into each other's face with dismay and then upon Ak with wonder. For it was a grave matter, this parting with the Mantle of Immortality.

The Queen of the Water Sprites spoke in her low, clear voice, and the words sounded like raindrops splashing upon a window pane.

"In all the world there is but one Mantle of Immortality," she said.

The King of the Sound Fays added: "It has existed since the Beginning and no mortal has ever dared to claim it."

And the Master Mariner of the World arose and stretched his limbs, saying:

"Only by the vote of every immortal can it be bestowed upon a mortal."

"I know all this," answered Ak quietly. "But the Mantle exists, and it, it was created, as you say, in the Beginning, it was because the Supreme Master knew that some day it would be required. Until now no mortal has deserved it, but who among you dares deny that the good Claus deserves it? Will you not all vote to bestow it upon him?"

They were silent, still looking upon one another questioningly.

"Of what use is the Mantle of Immortality unless it is worn?" demanded Ak. "What will it profit any one of us to allow it to remain in its lonely shrine for all time to come?"

"Enough!" cried the Gnome King abruptly. "We will vote on the matter, yes or no. For my part, I say yes!"

"And I!" said the Fairy Queen promptly, and Ak rewarded her with a smile.

"My people in Burzee tell me they have learned to love him, therefore I vote to give Claus the Mantle," said the King of the Ryls.

"He is already a comrade of the Knaves," announced the ancient King of that band. "Let him have immortality!"

"Let him have it—let him have it!" sighed the King of the Wind Demons. "Why not?" asked the King of the Sleep Fays. "He never disturbs the slumbers my people allow humanity. Let the good Claus be immortal!"

"I do not object," said the King of the Sound Imps.

"Nor I," murmured the Queen of the Water Sprites.

"If Claus does not receive the Mantle it is clear none other can ever claim it," remarked the King of the Light Elves, "so let us have done with the thing for all time."

"The Wood Nymphs were first to adopt him," said Queen Zurline. "Of course I shall vote to make him immortal!"

Ak now turned to the Master Husbandman of the World, who held up his right arm and said "Yes!"

And the Master Mariner of the World did likewise, after which Ak, with sparkling eyes and smiling face, cried out:

"I thank you, fellow immortals! For all have voted 'yes,' and so to our dear Claus shall fall the one Mantle of Immortality that it is in our power to bestow!"

"Let us fetch it at once," said the Fairy Queen. "I'm in a hurry."

They bowed assent and instantly the Forest glade was deserted, but in a place midway between the earth and the sky was suspended a gleaming crypt of gold and platinum, aglow with soft lights shed from the facets of countless gems. Within a high dome hung the precious Mantle of Immortality, and each immortal placed a hand on the hem of the splendid robe and said, as with one voice:

"We bestow this Mantle upon Claus, who is called the Patron Saint of Children!"

At this the Mantle came away from its lofty crypt, and they carried it to the house in the Laughing Valley.

The Spirit of Death was crouching very near to the bedside of Claus, and as the immortals approached she sprang up and motioned them back with an angry gesture, but when her eyes fell upon the Mantle they bore she shrank away with a low moan of disappointment and quitted that house forever.

Softly and silently the immortal Band dropped upon Claus the precious Mantle, and it closed about him and sank into the outlines of his body and disappeared from view. It became a part of his being, and neither mortal nor immortal might ever take it from him.

Then the Kings and Queens who had wrought this great deed dispersed to their various homes, and all were well contented that they had added another immortal to their Band.

And Claus slept on, the red blood of everlasting life coursing swiftly through his veins, and on his brow was a tiny drop of water that had fallen from the ever melting gown of the Queen of the Water Sprites, and over his lips hovered a tender kiss that had been left by the sweet Nymph Nettle. For she had stolen in when the others were gone to gaze with rapture upon the immortal form of her foster son.

GRIP CONVALESCENCE

There's nothing better than Scott's Emulsion after the grip. When the fever is gone the body is left weak and exhausted; the nervous system is completely run down and vitality is low.

Two things to do: give strength to the whole body and new force to the nerves. Scott's Emulsion will do it; contains just what the worn-out system needs.

Rich blood, healthy flesh, resistive force, more and better nourishment are what Scott's Emulsion supplies to the convalescent.

Scott's Emulsion is the original and has been the standard emulsion of cod liver oil for nearly thirty years.

Why buy the new, untried, cheap emulsions or so called wines, cordials and extracts of cod liver oil, when you can buy what is sure to help you?

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

Leaf shade in soft fabric is a preferred shawl for house or reception gowns.

Royal, emerald, mauve and a reddish violet are purple hues favored by the modiste.

HANDSOME WRAPS.

Elaborate Outer Garments and Their Proper Accompaniments.

The other night I went to see "Becky Sharp." Mrs. Fiske is an actress who attracts an audience of well dressed women. They looked like a garden of marigolds with a few scarlet poppies thrown in and a lot of red skinned onions scattered around profusely. Many were in white, like stately lilies while a few wore black, but black so covered with white lace on the waists that the effect was like cobwebs over the frozen grass.

The picture was one of radiant color and beauty. Never before, I think, have I seen rich colors in such general use. Heretofore it has been considered vulgar to appear in public in such deep reds and yellows, to say nothing of the russets and browns; but there are so many shades and colors that I despair of telling half their glories. Beautiful woman, however, is always more beautiful than ever in the latest new thing with which she decks herself.

Hats were largely in evidence before the curtain went up—big, flat, high and overloaded with enormous ostrich plumes—and these hats, instead of lying flat, as they have done for two seasons, are now so arranged that they stand high and curl over in graceful shapes. The wraps, too, come in for quite a good share of admiration, and there was just a little ladylike craning of the necks to see some of them. The wearers came sweeping down the aisles with heads poised in accordance with the beauty and value of the wrap, and when at last seats were reached the happy wearers stood quite a half minute, turning slowly, so that all there saw and straightway became so envious that they lost half the meaning of the opening act. These wraps are like loose sacks in shape, generally with a fold in the center of the back, and the sleeves are big and elaborate. White broadcloth or white ribbed velveteen, or in some cases heavy white silk, makes the richest.

A few very light pearl grays are seen, and white in its variations of ivory, cream and oyster is often employed. These garments are lined with some contrasting silk, satin or rich heavy brocade. Most of them are without collars, but all are heavily embroidered or incrustated with lace. This lace is naturally of a shade differing from the material as far as possible and still remaining white. If the garment is mat white, the lace is ivory or cream, and so on. The effect is elegant and stylish, while its value is patent to all. A few wraps are high in the neck, with small storm collars made very stiff with featherbone, so that while flexible they are sufficiently firm, and others are bordered with some rich fur around the collar and on the sleeves and also down the front. Swansdown, after having been relegated to the place where out of date styles are kept, has been brought forward and is seen on many of the elegant evening wraps.

When the handsome wraps have been fully admired they are slowly removed with that beautiful assumption of utter ignorance of the presence of another the fashionable woman can display, and then the waist beneath is seen in all its glory. White, with embroidery and lace, is the favorite color. What did the world ever do without lace and chiffon? A few waists are red, some golden brown, some gray, others lilac or pink, as one's complexion makes advisable, but all are slightly puffed still and made with folds rather than fine plaits. Embroidery in which are mingled metallic threads, spangles or fine cut jet is seen. One suit under observation had a dark velvet skirt, a pale lilac silk waist fairly covered with ivory lace, heavy and thick, and over this was worn a medium short cape, heavily wrought with a wide pattern in cut jet.

Very smart are some of the three-quarter cloth wraps of the season made along the lines of the old fashioned mantles of the sixties, but modified to get up to date requirements. The wrap illustrated is a stunning new example carried out in fine black face cloth. The full, long shoulder capes are trimmed with braid and ornaments of the new silk braid variety. The wrap itself is stitched many rows about the edges and fastens at the throat with graduated lengths of cords on which are handsome dangles.

BOND BUYERS HERE

Disappointed to Learn That Sale Had Been Stopped by Injunction—A Chicago Man Says Newark
Bonds are Gilt Edged.

Notice of the injunction against the sale of $300,000 city bonds for the erection of a new municipal water works plant, granted by the Common Pleas court Wednesday afternoon up on the prayer of Solicitor Phil B.
Smythe, was served on City Auditor
Frank T. Maurath, and as a result the bonds were not sold.

William H. Voris, representing Farson, Leach & Co., bankers, one of the big financial institutions of the United States, having offices in Chicago, New York, Boston and Philadelphia, arrived in Newark early Thursday morning prepared to bid for the bonds and buy them if possible.

Mr. Voris was greatly disappointed when he arrived in Newark and found the sale tied up in litigation.

He was met on the street by an Advocate reporter and asked what effect the injunction would have upon his firm's bidding for the bonds,
if the injunction should be dissolved,
and the sale declared legal.

"None whatever," he replied. "I came here to buy the bonds, and if they could have been legally sold was prepared to pay as much as any other prospective purchaser. The issuance of the injunction, as far as we are concerned, does not in the least affect the intrinsic value of the bonds, and if this thing is cleared up we will pay just as big a premium as we would had the injunction never been issued.

"There will be an effort of bond-buyers to 'bear' them after this litigation and purchase them at a price far below their real value. This effort is already on, and it will continue. Officials of the city will be told that the litigation has convinced buyers that Newark has a lot of 'rotten' stuff on hand which it wants to dump into the market, and by such means, and others, will attempt to 'bear' the purchase.

"My people however, are not in this class. We stand ready to take the bonds at a handsome premium
as soon as they can be legally sold."
"You think then that a Newark city bond is a good security?" asked the reporter.

"Gilt edged," said Mr. Voris, who added "We wish we had $1,000,000 of the same kind in our strong box."

"Will you bid for bonds that may be issued for the purchase of the old plant, if such an issue is made?"

"I will bid at any time for any amount of Newark's bonds," he replied.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON

Kearns Wants Slice of Arizona.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Senator Kearns introduced a bill providing for the annexation to Utah of all that portion of Arizona lying north of the Colorado river. The portion of Arizona affected is about 800 square miles in area. It is north of the Grand Canon and on that account inaccessible to authorities of Arizona. It is said it now forms a haven for criminals, and the purpose of the measure is to give Utah criminal jurisdiction over the tract.

Foraker Amendment.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Senator Foraker gave notice in the senate that he would not press his amendment reducing the duty on Philippine products coming into the United States.
This was done because of complaint that the amendment took unfair advantage of senators who supposed only the government bill was to be voted upon when an agreement was made to take a vote Dec. 16.

Naturalization Laws.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Naturalization frauds were considered by the president in a talk he had with Representative Goulden of New York. Mr.
Goulden said he had a bill pending to prevent these frauds, but he proposed to withdraw that measure and introduce a joint resolution providing for a commission to revise the naturalization laws. The president approved the commission plan.

Clemency Denied Mrs. Dodge.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The president denied executive clemency to Mrs. Phillis Dodge, from whom the government seized a pearl necklace several years ago. The sale of the necklace by the government, which was postponed in order that Mrs. Dodge's attorneys might present the matter to the president, will now proceed. The necklace is valued at $39,000.

Invited to Delaware.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, Representative Warnock of Ohio and former Governor George W. Atkinson of West Virginia invited President Roosevelt on behalf of the board of trustees of the Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware, O., to attend the installation of Dr. Welsh as president of the institution next June.

Ware Prefers Cyclones.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Commissioner of Pensions Eugene F. Ware called

NEWARK MASONS

At Installation of Officers In Granville and Saw Past Master's Degree Conferred.

Granville, O., Dec. 15.—Wednesday night, December 14, 1904, was a red-letter occasion in the history of Center Star Lodge, No. 11, F. and A. M., of Granville, one of the oldest Masonic lodges in Ohio. The occasion was the installation of the officers-elect and the conferring of the Past Master's degree on several candidates. There was an unusually large attendance, fully 95 per cent of the local members of the lodge being in attendance, together with members of lodges from Newark, Johnstown, Croton and Fredonia, there being some 15 or 20 from Newark alone. The officers-elect were installed by Past Master W. H. Sedgwick, assisted by I. H. DeBow, as Grand Marshal, as follows.

W. M.—J. M. Swartz.
S. W.—E. J. Barnes.
J. W.—H. R. Handley.
Treasurer—L. A. Austin.
Secretary—T. G. Baker.
S. D.—Prof. Arthur Judson.
J. D.—Frank Stanton.
Chaplain—Robert Wylie.
Stewards—C. E. Wright, E. F. Hobart.

Tyler—John DeBow.
At the conclusion of work incident
to the installing of officers, the Past Master's degree was conferred on De-mas Hoover of Croton lodge, Johnstown; J. E. Cada, Farmers' lodge, Fredonia, after which all repaired to the Hotel Buxton, where a sumptuous supper that had been prepared in the Buxton's best style, was partaken of
and was heartily enjoyed.
